Art Unit: 1644

DETAILED ACTION

1. The examiner of this application in the PTO has changed. To aid in the correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Sharon Wen, Group Art Unit 1644, Technology Center 1600.

2. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I (claims 9-12) in the reply filed on 04/26/2007 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-8 have been canceled.

Claims 9-13 are currently pending.

Claim 13 has been withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

3. Upon further consideration, a supplemental species election has been requested as set forth in this Office Action.

The examiner apologizes for any inconvenience to Applicant in this matter.

Claims 9-12 are currently under restriction requirement.

Species Election

4. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

A. Applicant is required to elect a specific method for prevention, inhibition and treatment of sepsis in an animal or patient at risk for sepsis comprising:

i) extracorporeal removal of anti-AG_{M1} antibodies and/or anti-G_{M1} antibodies from blood by plasmapheresis (reading on claims 9bi and 10-12);

ii) administration of an agent which binds or blocks anti-AG_{M1} antibodies and/or anti-G_{M1} antibodies (reading on claims 9bii and 10); OR

iii) administration of antibiotics (reading on claim 9biii).

B. Applicant is further required to elect a specific agent which binds or blocks anti-AG_{M1} antibodies and/or anti-G_{M1} antibodies for which is used in the elected method (see supra) for prevention, inhibition and treatment of sepsis, for example:

- i) gangliosides AG_{M1};
- ii) gangliosides G_{M1}; OR
- iii) substances which simulate the carbohydrate moiety of said gangliosides.

If (iii), i.e. "substances", is elected, Applicant is further required to elect an ultimate species of the agent that reads on a substance as disclosed in specification on page 3, e.g. TNF-alpha.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the stated in the previous Restriction Requirement mailed on 04/02/2007.

In addition, PCT Rule 13.2 defines "special technical features" as "those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art."

Della Valle et al. teach using a therapeutic ganglioside agent for treatment sepsis which can be due to toxic infection causes (U.S. Patent 4,593,091, see entire document, in particular, column 16, lines 23-26). Therefore, the technical feature in the present application does not contribute over prior art thus the unity of invention does not exist.

6. Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1644

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sharon Wen whose telephone number is (571) 270-3064. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday, 8:30AM-6:00PM, ALT. Friday, EST.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Christina Chan can be reached on (571)272-0841. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
